

Dr. M. John Cava

John travels around the world, speaking on missions, encouraging ministries, and training new workers. He is Founder/President of the World Outreach Center in Fort Mill, SC. Along with his wife, Joanne, John has four children and eight grandchildren.

Introducing: World Outreach International Fellowship (WOIF)

We are excited to offer a new program to broaden our impact to the nations and the national workers in the field. In recent years, the request for help by national pastors and other types of ministers has been rising. Much of this has been a desire for someone to come alongside the leaders themselves. They struggle with frustrations, burnout, family issues and strategies for progress. All too often our response has been, "We are only structured to train, send and support missionaries." Often times, we have wedged in some informal personal visits because of our love bonds. Now, God has given us a way to offer more .

We are ready to present World Outreach International Fellowship (WOIF). This arm of WOC will create a relational network of ministers of like passion that want to connect to the WOC leaders and families, like Scot Ford and I. They will also connect with our other missionaries in the field for friendship, encouragement and exchange of resources. Becoming a part of WOIF will be by referral only and be maintained on a relational association basis. Isn't this what the early apostles would do?

What we offer:

1. Leaders to give counsel and befriend other laborers in the field
2. Teams to help with programs and events (as available)
3. Field visits to pray and strategize together
4. Family counsel to keep your family strong and resolve problems
5. Attendance to our annual conferences and retreats

What we ask:

1. An honest and transparent relationship from the heart
2. Help to support expenses when traveling
3. A willingness to have an extended spiritual family
4. Prayer for our home team and investing in it so we can support others.

You can find more about this program on the WOC website.

The kingdom of God is a family-style army of builders and warriors that who support one another. It is a force to bring the light of God to the world. If you feel called to be a part of WOIF, fill out an application from our website and send it in. Thank you for being a part of WOC over the years. Let's build together. ➔

Dear World Outreach Family and Friends:

Thank you for believing in us and supporting the Great Commandment of Jesus to "... go into all the world." We are once again challenged with bringing the Gospel to a world that resembles the nearing of the end-times. There are wars, earthquakes and shakings everywhere. Yet, our God and His kingdom remains firm. Our missionaries bring back a constant report, " the gospel is working." It is still "the power of God unto salvation."

Bearing fruit seems to be so abundant these days. January and February were explosive with travel ministry in Quebec and Italy. March in Mexico opened up a group of churches to us in north and south Chihuahua as we worked with the Partridges and Cingaris. In May, we will be visiting our workers, Frank and Mary, in Malawi. We just helped them purchase two buildings for a children's center. And, we received a glowing report from the outreaches in Frankfurt, Germany coming from the Weavers. This happens because you care and pray, as we go.

Save the date for our Annual Missions Conference, November 3-5, 2018. Join us!

Much love from,

The World Outreach Center Team ➔

Zach and Natalie Archer
Hannah, Zadok, Enoch, & Joshua
Karlsruhe, Germany

Since God has called them to Germany in 2016, Zach and Natalie have been serving at the prayer center Karlsruhe and at a local church called CZK. Zach weekly leads a team that does outreach to spread the good news of Jesus and His love for all humanity.

To reach the younger generation and disciple them, they started a weekly meeting at their house called "Encounter Group". During this meeting, they eat together, worship, share a message from the word, and wait on God to listen to what He wants to say. This group started out with 10-15 people. Now up to 30-40, as the older generation heard about it and started coming regularly. They had to move the meeting to the local church building to have enough space for everybody. It is a time to come and feast at the table of the Lord.

Every two months Zach and Natalie organize a teen camp at the prayer center. This is where the young adults get to preach, lead worship, and disciple the generation after them.

Natalie has been pouring into the moms and children by organizing a moms group every week where mothers and children come to their house and meditate on the word of God and pray for each other.

The World Outreach Center was started almost 11 years ago, with most of the original planters having been touched by the fires of revival. We had dreams of worldwide expansion, with missionaries on every continent and teams being trained and sent out constantly. God had different plans. Most of the original planting team moved on to other ministries and life in general. A few of us press on at WOC, remembering the past – where we were touched by the fire of God for that season, but stepping forward – into the blazes God has set for the now.

WOC does not look exactly like we thought it would look, but neither do we. We do, however, look more like our parents, physically, than we did almost 11 years ago. Seems funny when you think about it, but it's inevitable. We all age and mature physically, and we should do the same spiritually. Things change day to day. Paul said in 2Cor 3:18, "But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit." As we seek Him, we change; as we search for Him, we change; as we run after Him, we change; as we behold Him, we change; as we communicate with Him, we change; as we hold onto Him, we change; as we stay in His presence, WE CHANGE! We cannot help but change. The change is that we become more like Him –we TRANSFORM into the same image from "glory to glory" - really from place to place He has for us – from season to season of His presence. Don't wish you were where you were 20 years ago, or 10 years ago or even 1 month ago! Want to be in His presence NOW! Want to be unveiled and beholding his glory NOW! Want to be transformed NOW!

WOC is being transformed–changed into something other than what we originally thought it would be. We are adding to the sending and supporting of missionaries more outreach and church strengthening around the world. Within this very newsletter are indications of this wonderful Holy Spirit breathed maturation.

So, where are you? Stuck wishing you were where you were in a season in the past–maybe remembering fire of the past and hoping you had that fire back? Well, let me be the first to say, GOD has fire for you NOW! Behold Him with unveiled face and be TRANSFORMED! ➔
