Good Versus Evil in Society's Trials – What do we do?

We cannot just have a “wait and see” posture in these days of international crisis. Our God knows all the truths about what is happening: where there is corruption, the root of the problem, and the wisest solutions. But, we hear many voices. It's important to remember even though God holds ultimate control in His hands, the enemy, the devil, the prince of the powers of the air, still goes around like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour (1 Pet. 5:8-10). Him we are called to resist and even more so, to be proactive by the Spirit of the Lord and advance by faith in this season.

The enemy is trying to create an economic and health famine. But, we are the people of God! Recently, a Christian sister gave me a Scripture of encouragement, Genesis 26:12. The story tells of how Isaac sowed in the land and God prospered him a hundredfold, while others struggled. He was the recipient of ancient covenants by God and oaths made to his father, Genesis 21:30,31. His seed sowing prospered. His wells found water. It was the area of Beersheba – its name given as the “well of oaths (covenants) or well of sevens.”

We have a greater covenant in Christ. It is sealed by His blood and has given us greater promises of blessings. In this time where there seems to be a pause in normal everyday living, seek the Lord where you should sow, start something fresh, or recover a promise that God has for you. You are different than the others who are scrambling around you. You are a son or daughter of the living God with great and precious promises. Don't let evil in the world stymie your initiatives and calling.

Take this little bit of slow time and pray, regroup, launch out, sow into a future harvest, and expect a return on your investment. God cares about you and watches over his Word to make it happen. Yes, resist the enemy, but remember you have a well - even a river full of hope and promises. Sow in faith for yourself and others, and you will prosper. →

Dear World Outreach Family and Friends:

We send this Spring Newsletter to encourage you in a difficult time in world history. Who would of thought 2020 would be remembered for a pandemic virus? Yet, God is always operating on behalf of His people and for a better purpose. Don't be moved. Stand on the Rock. It's time to pray, strengthen yourself in the Lord and resist the enemy.

Our missionaries are in different parts of the world standing at their posts and shining their lights in a dark world. We ask you to keep praying and supporting them. Sow in faith and keep your expectations on God.

We also are celebrating the release of Dr. John Cava's new book “The Church in His Image: Unveiling God's Secret Weapon.” While you have some extra time, enjoy some Good News.

In many ways, the articles and updates inside are just part of our way of saying “Thank You” for being a partner in this work for Christ.

Love and grace,

The World Outreach Center Team →

What amazing times we are living in. Frances (fellow missionary) and I are so honored to be out in the nations "for such a time as this." This is a time where we are called to have divine insight, shine brightly, and lead many to righteousness like the stars. (Daniel 12:3)

Since October 2019, we have ministered in areas of Cairo, Egypt; Madrid, Spain; Nairobi and Bondo, Kenya; and are currently back in Egypt.

We are plowing the ground and casting seed in an area that is predominantly 89% Muslim. We have also ministered to pastors, leaders, congregations, women, youth and believers. In some churches, we are the first women to preach from their pulpits. Recently we ministered in a secret house church where many Muslims came to Jesus and were healed.

In one village we preached to 300 women, casting vision of their great value and worth in Jesus.

At this time, we are visiting and sowing seeds in several Muslim families that are searching for hope and peace. Since schools are closed due to the Covid-19 virus, we have been painting, cleaning and ministering to the staff at a school for African refugees.

Doors are open for us to do house visits and encourage the Yemenis, Sudanese and the Asian communities.

Our hearts' cry is "Your kingdom come in power, signs and wonders, in Jesus name!"

- Dr. Michael L. Brown, President, FIRE School of Ministry, Host of the Line of Fire radio broadcast

"This is a must-read for church planters, missionaries, pastors and leaders, to help them get a clear understanding of the most effective way to build the local church and carry out missions."

-Dr. Timothy Johns, Founder & Leader of Rock International

"As I read this book, I was personally challenged as a pastor to bring change in the working of the church's mission to make this "image of God " happen. I believe John drives home the importance of how we need to export a healthy prototype of the kingdom of God in family style image."

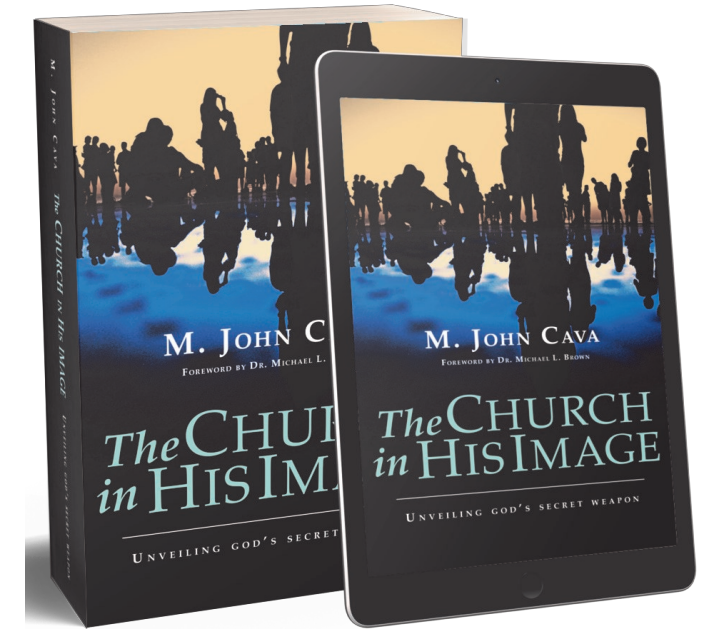

-Pastor Lisa Calabrese

"Dr. John Cava has written a must-read for anyone considering missions. Read this book - and learn from one of the best. His contagious passion for effective missions fills the pages. Actually, it is a must-read for all believers."

Dr. Nancy G. Daniel, Dean, CMM College of Theology

Update on the WOC Missionary Retreat in Italy

In our last newsletter, we announced a time of refreshing for all the WOC missionaries through a retreat in Italy, scheduled for May. Due to the worldwide Covid-19 pandemic, we have postponed the retreat. We will not be able to schedule a new date until the travel and social restrictions have lifted. We will still be looking for assistance in sponsoring or adopting our missionaries to help provide with the ground costs (lodging and food) during the retreat. All funds given toward this will be held and designated for the retreat.
